

Sad to say, his delivery system can be faster than yours.

That's why there's Fidelity Life Association.

Combining web-based technology with innovative underwriting, Fidelity Life has pioneered one of the most convenient application and approval processes in the industry today. Our process reduces approval time to hours or days, not months, providing quicker commission payments for you and a quality experience for your customers. And this revolutionary process is used with both our Rapid Decision Term product as well as our Graded Death Benefit policy designed especially for impaired risks.¹ All this, and the financial strength and security of an A- (Excellent) rating from A.M. Best² as well. We're Fidelity Life. And, if you're looking for a new kind of company partner with a rock-solid past and a future filled with innovation, just call Marketing/Sales at 866-710-1013 or FidelityLife.com. We'll deliver on everything we promise.
